

Pacific Life Re appoints new Managing Director, Australia & Asia

Singapore, 25th February 2019 – Pacific Life Re is pleased to announce the appointment of Andrew Gill as the Managing Director of the Australia and Asia business units. Andrew is currently the Managing Director of Pacific Life Re Australia and serves as a member of the company's global executive team.

Andrew has led a very successful start-up of our Australian business unit since it was established in 2015. Under his leadership, the Australian team has established key partnerships with many of the leading Group and Retail insurers as well as introducing UnderwriteMe's technology to the Australian market. He has over 20 years of experience in the life insurance industry, working in a variety of roles ranging from Appointed Actuary to business development and marketing across Australia and several locations worldwide.

David Howell, CEO, Pacific Life Re, commented, "With Asia poised to become the next high-growth market, we are more committed than ever to further build on our high-calibre team so that we can continue to deliver outstanding levels of support to our clients in Asia. Given Andrew's successful track record in Australia and his vast and varied experience, we are confident that he has the right expertise and knowledge to lead the Asia team as they continue to grow rapidly."

Andrew Gill, Managing Director, Pacific Life Re Australia and Asia, commented, "Over the last few years, our Asia offices have grown from strength to strength whereby we are now seen as a highly credible player in many markets. Building on this, my team and I will continue to work closely with our insurance partners to develop unique propositions that deliver to those partners a genuine comparative advantage."
